Introduction

Making the case for hiring ex-offenders

The last five years have been challenging for businesses across Wales. In October 2024, Welsh Government commissioned a State of the Nation survey⁽¹⁾ of SME businesses across Wales that revealed:

- 65% of SMEs have become less profitable.
- 30% are finding it harder to recruit staff.
- 19% are finding it harder to retain staff.
- 17% are finding it harder to train staff.

There is a solution worth exploring

Around a quarter of the UK's working age population has a conviction⁽²⁾. That's a lot of people with valuable skills, experience and knowledge who can make a positive contribution to society – and potentially your business or organisation too.

Tapping into this talent pool that is currently overlooked makes smart business sense.

With support from the Welsh Government and their Better Learning, Better Chances: prison learning and skills policy, His Majesty's Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS), and services like Working Wales and other supportive parties such as the Department for Work and Pensions, it is possible to find suitable talent and ensure they are trained in the relevant skills – at little or no cost to your business, so they can hit the ground running when they join your business or organisation.

You can work hand-in-hand with these services to discuss your requirements and they'll work with you to solve your recruitment and skills gaps.

"Mae gan bawb stori. Pan fyddwn ni'n barnu pobl ar sail eu gorffennol, rydyn ni'n anwybyddu eu potensial. Gall swydd olygu mwy na chyflogaeth; gall fod yn drobwynt sy'n trawsnewid bywydau am genedlaethau. Felly, rydw i'n gofyn i bob arweinydd busnes yng Nghymru fynd ati i gyflogi'n wahanol a helpu i newid dyfodol pobl."

Spencer John

Prif Swyddog Gweithredol,
Ethos-Chain

"Everyone has a story. When we judge people by their past, we overlook their potential. A job can be more than employment; it can be the turning point that transforms lives for generations. So, my ask to all Welsh business leaders - hire differently, change lives."

- Hyrwyddwch ddulliau recriwtio teg a chynhwysol yn fewnol. Hyfforddych unrhyw un sy'n ymwneud â recriwtio ar eich polisi, a gwnewch yn siŵr eu bod yn deall y ddeddfwriaeth berthnasol sy'n ymwneud â recriwtio a rheoli gweithwyr sydd ag euogfarnau.
- Paratowch gyn-droseddwr i lwyddo drwy system gyfeillio. Penodwch fentoriaid neu gyfeillion cymwys i gefnogi pobl ag euogfarnau pan fyddan nhw'n ymuno â'r sefydliad. Gall cyfeillion chwarae rhan bwyrus yn y gwaith o greu diwylliant cynhwysol a helpu i ddarparu cefnogaeth werthfawr.

- Cyfathrebwch eich strategaeth ar gyfer cyflogi pobl sy'n gadael y carchar yn allanol ac yn fewnol, gan roi sicrwydd i weithwyr presennol fod gwiriadau'n cael eu cynnal. Mae cyfathrebu allanol hefyd yn dda i'ch enw da, eich brand cyflogwr, a bydd yn helpu i yrru ymgeiswyr at eich swyddi gwag.

Mae Canllaw Ymddiriedolaeth CIPD ar recriwtio, cyflogi a chadw pobl sydd ag euogfarnau* yn cynnig arweiniad a chefnogaeth ar fanteision cyflogi pobl sydd ag euogfarnau, mae'n dweud beth yw'r gyfraith a beth y mae angen i chi ei wybod wrth recriwtio pobl sydd ag euogfarnau, recriwtio, cynefino a chadw cyn-droseddwr, cyfathrebu eich bod chi'n cyflogi pobl sydd ag euogfarnau, a chyngor campus ar gyfer eu recriwtio a'u cadw.

What can you do, as an employer, to make recruiting ex-offenders a success?

- Champion fair and inclusive recruitment internally. Train anyone involved in recruitment on your policy and ensure they understand the relevant legislation relating to recruiting and managing employees with convictions.
- Set ex-offenders up for success with a buddy system. Appoint qualified mentors or buddies to support people with convictions as they join the organisation. Allies can play a powerful role in creating an inclusive culture and help to provide valuable support.

- Communicate your strategy for employing prison leavers both externally and internally, reassuring existing employees about checks in place. External communication is also good for your reputation, your employer brand, and will help to drive candidates to your vacancies.

The CIPD Trust's Guide to recruiting, employing and retaining people with convictions offers guidance and support on the benefits of employing people with convictions, the law and what you need to know when recruiting people with convictions, recruitment, onboarding and retaining ex-offenders, communicating your approach to hiring people with convictions and top tips for recruiting and retaining them.

Gyda chefnogaeth ac arweiniad, fe welwch fod gennych chi aelod ymroddedig o'r tîm a byddwch chi'n cael rhywbeth gwerth chweil yn ôl drwy hynny."
